Emotional building block seminars are not psychotherapy. They are educational groups that are designed to teach and help attendees practice a skill. You will not be able to bill your insurance company for this service. However, you can consider it a health expense for tax purposes. If you have mental health concerns outside of the group, you may contact your therapist. If you are not set up with a therapist and would like to schedule an appointment, please contact our administrative manager, Krystal Heinrick at contact.journeys@gmail.com or (480) 656-0500. For mental health emergencies, please contact the crisis hotline at (602) 222-9444. Although these seminars are not therapeutic processing groups, we ask that you keep the names and any personal content that is shared by attendees confidential.

I agree to pay for this service as listed above. I understand the purpose of the seminar and agree to the limitations, know how to seek additional mental health services if needed, and will keep the names and any personal content shared by other attendees confidential.
